

Israel Up Close:

A conversation with two Israeli women who are former IDF soldiers

Wednesday, October 7, 2009
12:30 pm, Main Campus Sukkah

Kotzen Patio area, in between Lefavour Hall and the Main Campus building

About our guests:

Danielle served as an instructor of army intelligence within the Intelligence Corps of the IDF, and is currently studying International Relations and Communications at Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

Noa is 25 years old and a current student at the Technion, the Israeli Institute of Technology, in Haifa. She was a professional instructor for the Air Defense Division teaching soldiers how to identify enemy aircraft. Afterward, Noa became an officer and commander in the field of Instruction and Learning in the Air Defense working to better the training Air Defense soldiers and officers receive.

Danielle and Noa are both participants in the StandWithUs Fellowship in Israel

Co-sponsored by
The Hillel Grinspoon
Israel Advocacy Internship

StandWithUs

More information: www.simmons.edu/~hillel