

Reflection Paper 4
Due Friday, December 4th

If you decide to complete this paper, please turn in a well-written, well-organized, thoughtful 250 word (approximately) essay (double-spaced with 10-12 point font and 1 inch margins all four sides) IN YOUR OWN WORDS that address the following. In “Killing Us Softly 3,” Jean Kilbourne describes how women are portrayed in advertisements. Are they portrayed significantly differently in TV shows? In what ways are ads and TV similar? Different?

In this paper, you need to choose an assertion or specific point of view to support. This is your thesis. Your thesis statement is to come from the prompt above, and every paragraph should support that thesis. It is generally a good strategy to write something closer to 500 words and then edit.
